‘A Celebration of Life’

Sam Clayton Kelly, Jr., 18, Walker Kelly, 19, and Mason Wilbanks, 19, all Madison Central graduates and freshmen at the University of Mississippi, died in a traffic accident the morning of Sunday, October 30th 2011, returning to Oxford for church with the fraternity they were pledging after a surprise visit home to see their parents.

Those who knew Sam Clayton Kelly, Walker Kelly and Mason Wilbanks said the tragic accident underscores their years of friendship. The three knew no separation in this life as the best of friends and they are in eternity together now.
